

From: <http://www.state.gov/m/fsi/tc/fslstraining/>

The Transition Center at the Foreign Service institute offers employees and their family training for effectiveness in the foreign affairs community and foreign service lifestyle by facilitating transitions throughout their careers. The Training Division's wide variety of programs and special events are designed to meet the diverse needs of employees and family members preparing for overseas assignments or returning to the United States. The continuum of training begins with presentations and courses targeting those new to the foreign affairs life. Some courses are designed specifically for spouses and some focus on children's concerns.

2010 Courses of Interest to Foreign Service Youth:

Summer Youth Program

Young Diplomats Day (MQ 250)

Youth Security Overseas Seminar (MQ 914)

Offered six times between June and August:

June 21-22

June 28-29

July 12-13

July 26-27

August 9-10

August 16-17

Going Overseas for Families (MQ 210)

Offered twice in 2010:

March 27

May 22

REGISTRATION

FSI/TC courses are open to U.S. Government employees and Eligible Family Members planning or returning from overseas postings. The Security Overseas Seminar (SOS) and the Advanced Security Overseas Seminar (ASOS) welcome enrollees who are Members of Household.

Classes are held at the Shultz Center, 4000 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington, VA, and fill quickly. Check the FSI course catalog on the Department's Open Net (<http://fsi.state.gov>) for space availability.

For tuition-based courses:

Non-State employees/family members submit an SF 182 (with fiscal data) through their Training Officer to the Office of the Registrar at FSI. State employees and Eligible Family Members must submit a DS-755 through the employee's Career Development Officer, but are permitted to take these courses at no charge. The FSI Registrar must receive written notice of cancellation five workdays before the course begins.

For non-tuition courses: All employees/family members, regardless of agency, register through the Training division at the Transition Center at 703-302-7268 or FSITCTraining@state.gov.

The deadline for all TC registrations are by 11:30 a.m. the day before the class. Be advised, some classes may be full by this date. In consideration of others, please arrange your own childcare when you are attending FSI TC classes. Programs appropriate for children are indicated in the FSI catalog or on TC advertisements.